LADIES' MATCH FEATURE FRIDAY IN TENNIS PLAY

Miss Vera Beyfuss Meets Miss Maile Vicars; Alan Lowrey Will Oppose Rothschild

TENNIS MATCHES FRIDAY

4:30—Ladies' singles. Finals. Miss Maile Vicars of Hilo vs. Miss Vera Beyfuss of San Francisco. 4:30—Men's singles. Alan Lowrey vs. James Rothschild.

Honolulu tennis enthusiasts will have an opportunity of witnessing real tennis played by the fair sex on Friday afternoon, when Miss Maile Vicars of Hilo, a student of Punahou, and Miss Vera Beyfuss of San Francisco meet on the courts in what is expected to be the best ladies' match ever staged in Honolulu.

Both players have gone through the tournament, winning by straight sets, and neither have been forced to play at top speed. Miss Beyfuss has been favored by many to win the match, but the Hilo girl has showed enough real tennis to assure her an excellent chance to win the honors. This match is creating a stir in tennis circles, and there is certain to be a crowd out when the first serve is made.

In one respect, Miss Vicars has shown excellent judgment, placing the ball back to the base line, giving her an opportunity to prepare for the next stroke. She seldom tries for aces until the right time comes, and then her hard drives invariably carry the point. Playing against Miss Beyfuss she will have to call upon every one of the strokes to win out, and the California girl has a well rounded game.

Miss Vicars has a good service, and when the first serve hits the court fair has the advantage, as she will excel the visitor in this department of the game. Miss Beyfuss has shown good form on ground strokes, and although forced to take the net on few occasions, has shown unusually good work in this department.

Punahou is sending a large delegation to watch Miss Vicars in action, while Miss Beyfuss will have a host of friends out to the courts to wish her good luck. It has certainly been a boon to tennis here to have such a match staged, and with a junior tournament coming in the near future, ladies' tennis is well on the road to a success in Hawaii.

Alan Lowrey, who must be figured upon when the championship is decided, will meet Jimmy Rothschild of Punahou, Rothschild has made a good showing in the tournament thus far, and is expected to give the more experienced player a hard match. Lowrey is picked to win, and if he plays the same style of game that was exhibited in his match with Dowson, should win in straight sets.

COLLEGIANS TO BE MINUS FOUR MEN SATURDAY

Despite Loss Britton Hopes to Defeat Strong Kam Team; Hawaii Loses Nicholson

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

COLLEGE OF HAWAII, Nov. 2.

The outlook for the College of Hawaii-Kamehameha game is not as bright now as it seemed immediately after the Mills game last Friday afternoon, when the college team walked through Mills' line at will for six touchdowns and two field goals. As a result of an accident during the Mills game "Sid" Nicholson, who had been on the sick list for a whole week, was set back and it is now though possible that he will be lost to the team for the most important game of the whole season next Saturday. Puhou was operated upon yesterday for a blood clot on his left knee, which puts a fast end out of the game for the remainder of the year. It is hoped that the injury received by Wung in the second game of the season will be healed sufficiently to permit him to take part in Saturday's game. If he cannot play it means that the college will be minus four of its best players for its most important game, as Harry Melim has left the college to go to school on the mainland. The loss of both regular ends, while it will be made up for by Bromley and Al, means that these players will be taken from their previous positions.

However, the outlook is only dark in view of the inability of injured men to play and their absence from the game is not certain. Bromley has been playing a star game at left end since Melim left that position, as has also Al on the other end. During the practice games of the week Hoskins has been playing left tackle, Cowen left guard, Case center, Ming and Fennell right guard, Fowler right tackle, Brash left halfback, Capt. Hicks right halfback and Mariuchi fullback. This is the probable lineup for the coming game with Kamehameha, unless Nicholson can return to center and Wung to right guard.

Lieut. Britton has found it possible to be with the team every day this week but Tuesday and it looks now as though he would not be compelled to give up coaching the college altogether. The confidence that Saturday's game will result in another victory for the college is based largely on the new spirit that Lieut. Britton has put in the team, for even though some of the best men may be out of the game, the others have been trained so efficiently that defeat is regarded as impossible.

TENNIS ENTRIES CLOSE ON NOV. 8

Entries for the ladies' doubles, mixed doubles and men's doubles at the Hawaii Polo & Racing Club tournament will be open until Wednesday, November 8, at E. O. Hall & Son. This will give many of the players an opportunity to enter the list.

Many of the players who entered the March tournament have failed to play in the present matches. Harold Dillingham was entered in the doubles last year and made a good showing. Charles Littlejohn is another player who has not entered this play. Last March Littlejohn played a great match, and opposing Castle and Ekland, played at top form, although his partner, O'Dowda, was slightly off color.

Mrs. Hind, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Gordon, the Misses Hopper, Ballentine and Richards have not entered the present tournament. In the last tournament, the match between Mrs. Ivers and Harold Dillingham and Mrs. Hind and Alan Lowrey was one of the features of the play.

Entries received to date show that there will be a large entry in the men's doubles, but the ladies' doubles and mixed doubles show only a few entries.

FORMER NAVY STAR FOOTBALL PLAYER DIES IN CALIFORNIA

According to one of the latest mainland papers, Ensign K. P. Gilchrist, U. S. navy, a former star athlete at the U. S. Naval Academy, died at the naval hospital, Mare Island, Cal., on October 9 after a short illness of pneumonia and complications.

Ensign Gilchrist was a star navy cadet in 1911-12 and was captain of his team in 1913. He was one of the best ends of his time and had a record in athletics generally that is seldom equaled. Besides winning fame in the football world, he was recognized as the best boxer in the light-heavyweight class at the naval academy and was also a star lacrosse player on his team. Ensign Gilchrist graduated in the class of 1914 and was appointed from Missouri.

SHAFTER SQUAD DEFEATS KAM BY SCORE OF 39-0

Second Infantry Team Shows Big Improvement Over Work in National Guard Game

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

Nov. 2.

The stock of the 2d Infantry football team has gone up! Up! up! For they played a game with the Kamehameha school team Tuesday—the same team that defeated Mills a week ago to the tune of 40 to 0—and the result was exceedingly disastrous to the "Kam" boys, 39 to 0, for the soldiers were playing real football all afternoon, and there was not one scrapper among them, except in the way in which they ought to be aggressive.

Not a man was penalized for offside playing, and not a man was accused of holding. The stage fright had disappeared, and in place of that falling-down-when-bumped manner of Saturday last today it was all on the other way. The backfield was almost new, and the changes were excellent ones; Petroskey took Amama's place and Harmon was in Brunswick's place, as he was not able to be out. Petroskey played like a tractor on the Somme, plugging through the line, always, even when tackled, for gains of from 10 to 20 yards, while the playing of Harmon as back reminds the oldtimers of days of King of Princeton, for he skirts the ends and plunges the line with equal force, daring and successful. Garland as end in Harmon's place was 100 per cent superior to his work of last week and justified the opinion of the coach in putting him in that end as a regular, for he has gained control and gave no silly exhibitions of loss of temper, as in the game with the National Guard.

Kester kicked the goals, and out of four trials only missed one, while Harmon missed the one try that was given to him for some experience in goal-kicks. Black, the other half, made tremendous gains, mostly through the large openings that were made for him in the lines, and he demonstrated the fact that there is that most useful "is" on the Shafter team, a back who can use his head and eyes, and when he sees a weak spot or a great, big opening can make for it like the wind, and can always gain. Long is a star at end, and with Baxter as sub end and Garland or Lindsay as running mates, will make the best of teams hustle at all times. The work of all the ends in following the ball down the field is fine and the opening up for receiving forward passes, while a little slow, will correct itself. The men know and are trying hard to overcome this defect, as they broke up or gathered in all forward passes made by Kam today, except two, and those were too perfect to fail.

The "Kam" team put up a strenuous game, but the weight and the classic game played by the Shafter team was too perfect to resist, and besides it was noticeable that it was always some one of the soldiers who got the ball when it was fumbled, and all of the kickoffs were taken perfectly, and the interference was formed promptly and with a direct purpose in view.

The teams were formed as follows:

2d Infantry	Kamehameha
Garland, Lindsay	Husey
Harvell, Ellis	Kapukino
Allen	Peneku
Donahue, Porter	Kaloua
Kester	Woolsey
Scott	Kannu
Long, Baxter	Hobbs
Doran, Lee	De la Nux
Black	Buku
Petroskey	Palama
Harmon	Eaton
	F. B.

The periods were 10 minutes; the touchdowns 6; goals kicked, 3 by the 2d Infantry. Total for 2d Infantry, 39; Kamehameha, 0.

This game ought to give the soldier team the greatest confidence in their game next Saturday with the 1st Infantry, and it ought to win the interest of the sport-loving community. If the 1st Infantry is willing the game between the 2d Infantry and the Artillery may be played as a curtain raiser before the Kamehameha-Hawaii game on Kam field next Saturday at 2 p. m., instead of at Schofield.

FOUR TEAMS TO PLAY AGAINST ALL-AMERICANS

25th Infantry, Travelers, All-Oahus and Brushers Will Meet Big Leaguers

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

Nov. 2.

When the All-Americans come here for their series with the locals they will meet four teams. Already the 25th Infantry, Travelers and Brushers have been lined up, and the All-Oahus will be the fourth team on the list. Henry Chillingworth will captain the team with Bert Hushaw as manager. Hushaw had originally intended to line up a team of stars, but did not believe that he could spare the time to get the boys out to practice. Now that Chilly has recovered from his recent injury, he is expected to line up a strong team. Hushaw will have charge of the team which meets the 25th Infantry at Athletic Park on Sunday, November 11.

McGavin, who played with the Honolulu, is expected to work behind the bat for the All-Oahus, and Francis Brown and South will do the pitching. With Jackson at shortstop, Ralls at second, Chilly at shortstop, and Souza at third, the team should present a good infield. Several other men will perhaps don uniforms again to get into action, among them being Charley Lyman, Lieut. Britton, Yamashiro, Nye Inman and T. Moriyama. This team should shape up as strong as the Brushers, and with practice should improve.

Brush is going about lining up a strong team, and should Dawson improve, will have a good lineup. He has such stars as South, Jackson, Ralls, Lynch, Estelle, Amama, Jonsson, and many others to pick from. Hollerback and Simmons are good ball players and ought to make a good showing.

The Travelers will perhaps have in their lineup Hoon Ki and Luck Yee as pitchers, Al Lee at first, Moriyama at second, Ayau at short, and Swan at third. En Sue, Lang Akana and Yen Chin will perhaps perform in the outfield. Kan Yen is not playing the case of ball that he did a year ago, but may be used behind the bat if he can beat out Leong for the position. Ayau will have charge of the team. The Chinese will not play in this series as Kim Luke has retired from baseball activities. Kai Luke, Cheong and Kan Leong will be left out of the team if Ayau's lineup holds good, and Chilly could do worse than land Kai Luke for an infield position in this special series.

Fair Enough

Rogan will not pitch against the All-Stars one week from Sunday as he will be saved for the first game with the All-Americans, so Hushaw's stars will have an excellent chance of winning if South goes on the mound. With Jackson, Moriyama, Ayau and Swan in the infield and Inman, En Sue and perhaps Lang Akana in the gardens, the 25th Infantry will have to go some with Waterhouse, Jasper or Aniston on the mound.

U. S. RUNNERS SHOW HEELS TO THE SWEDES

CHRISTIANIA, Sweden (via London), Oct. 22.—American runners again were well in the front at the games here today and Saturday. Yesterday Joe Loomis defeated Kullerstrand, the crack Swedish high jumper, with a leap of six feet. Ted Meredith easily won the 400-meter race (437 yards) in 0:50.1. The American team took the relay also.

Today Joe Loomis showed his sprinting ability by forcing Rustad, Norway, to place second in the 100-meter dash, while Andy Ward ran away from the field for third. Bob Simpson, American hurdle champion, and Fred Murray, former title holder, cleaned the field. Simpson took first and Murray second. The relay teams again won today. The summaries (Saturday):

200-meter run (218 yards 26 inches)—Andy Ward, first, 0:22 seconds; Bob Simpson, second; Fred Murray, third.

High jump—Joe Loomis, first, 183 centimeters (six feet); Kullerstrand, Sweden, second, 178 centimeters; Murray third, 168 centimeters.

400-meter run (437 yards 16 inches)—Ted Meredith, first, 0:50 1-10 seconds.

400-meter relay—American team first.

Today the 100-meter dash won by Joe Loomis, American; second, Rustad, Norway; third, Andy Ward, American. Time, 0:10 8-10 seconds.

300-meter run won by J. Bolin, Sweden; time, 1:56 5-10 seconds. Second, Ted Meredith, America; time, 1:56 6-10 seconds.

110-meter high hurdles won by Bob Simpson, American; second, Fred Murray, American. Time, 0:14 9-10.

400-meter relay won by American team—Loomis, Ward, Simpson and Murray; second, Scandinavian team. Time, 0:43.

Little balls around one 18-hole course. In August there was a daily average of 217 players, and in September 210, due, perhaps, to the shorter days.
